

Silicon Laboratories Appoints Interim CFO; Company will Begin Executive Search to Replace CFO on Medical Leave

May 12, 2006 11:00 AM EDT

Mr. Walsh joined Silicon Laboratories in 2004 as the director of finance for worldwide operations. He was appointed corporate controller in 2005. Mr. Walsh has more than a decade of experience in the semiconductor industry. In addition to his experience at Silicon Laboratories, he has held significant roles related to business operations, financial planning and analysis, and international finance and accounting at Analog Devices, Teradyne, and PerkinElmer. Mr. Walsh has an M.B.A. from Boston University and a B.S. in mechanical engineering from the University of Maine.

The Company anticipates a permanent CFO will be on board by the end of the year. Mr. Brennan is expected to return and play an active role in the company's strategic financial planning when his health allows.

"We wish Russ well and look forward to his return to our team. Russ has made a tremendous contribution to the company by building a solid financial foundation while recruiting and mentoring a strong finance team," said Necip Sayiner, president and chief executive officer of Silicon Laboratories. "I feel very confident in Paul's ability to support the company as interim CFO and do not expect any disruption to current operations during the transition."
