Item 5.07. Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

On April 30, 2026, Silicon Laboratories Inc., a Delaware corporation (“Silicon Labs”), held a special meeting of stockholders virtually via live webcast (the “Special Meeting”). As of the close of business on March 23, 2026, the record date for the Special Meeting, there were 32,968,416 shares of Silicon Labs’ common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (“Common Stock”), outstanding and entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. A total of 25,887,142 shares of Common Stock were present or represented by proxy, representing 78.52% of the shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote, which constituted a quorum to conduct business at the Special Meeting.

At the Special Meeting, holders of Common Stock voted on two proposals, as described in further detail in Silicon Labs’ definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission on March 27, 2026.

The following is a summary of the matters voted upon at the Special Meeting and the final voting results with respect to each of such matter.

Proposal No. 1 — The Merger Proposal: The proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of February 4, 2026 (as it may be amended, supplemented or modified from time to time, the “Merger Agreement”), by and among Silicon Labs, Texas Instruments Incorporated, a Delaware corporation (“Texas Instruments”), and Caldwell Merger Corp., a Delaware corporation and wholly owned direct subsidiary of Texas Instruments (“Merger Sub”), and approve the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Merger Sub will merge with and into Silicon Labs, with Silicon Labs surviving as a wholly owned subsidiary of Texas Instruments (the “Merger”), was approved by the votes set forth below:

Votes For	Votes Against	Abstentions
25,878,105	7,467	1,570

Proposal No. 2 — The Compensation Proposal: The proposal to approve, by non-binding, advisory vote, the compensation that will or may be paid or become payable to Silicon Labs’ named executive officers that is based on or otherwise relates to the Merger was approved by the votes set forth below:

24,770,609	974,309	142,224

Proposal No. 3 — The Adjournment Proposal: In connection with the Special Meeting, Silicon Labs also solicited proxies with respect to the adjournment of the Special Meeting, if necessary and for a minimum period of time reasonable under the circumstances, to ensure that any necessary supplement or amendment to the proxy statement was provided to Silicon Labs stockholders a reasonable amount of time in advance of the Special Meeting, or to solicit additional proxies if there were insufficient votes at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement. Given that there was a quorum present and there were sufficient proxies at the time of the Special Meeting to adopt the Merger Agreement, the proposal was rendered moot.

Completion of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement remains subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions, including the receipt of certain regulatory approvals.
