SILICON LABORATORIES REPORTS RECORD QUARTER

—Company Surpasses $500 Million Revenue Milestone—

AUSTIN, Texas — July 28, 2010 — Silicon Laboratories Inc. (Nasdaq: SLAB), a leader in high-performance, analog-intensive, mixed-signal integrated circuits (ICs), today reported record revenue of $134.6 million for the second quarter and delivered record operating performance enabling better than expected earnings per share. On a trailing twelve month basis, the company crossed $500 million in revenue while achieving record profitability and earnings growth.

Financial Highlights

Second quarter revenue of $134.6 million was a nearly 30 percent increase over the same period in 2009 and a six percent sequential increase. Second quarter GAAP gross margin increased again considerably to 67.5 percent. R&D investment for the second quarter was $30.5 million. SG&A expense was $29.7 million. GAAP operating income exceeded 20 percent for the fourth consecutive quarter, totaling 22.8 percent. The GAAP tax rate was 31 percent and included a one-time charge related to the acquisition of Silicon Clocks announced in April. Fully diluted earnings per share were $0.44, more than double compared to the same period last year.

The following non-GAAP results exclude the impact of stock compensation expense and the one-time Silicon Clocks acquisition tax expense. Non-GAAP gross margin for the quarter was up again to 67.8 percent. Non-GAAP operating expenses decreased as a percent of revenue to 37.1 percent. R&D investment increased to $26.1 million and SG&A expense increased to $23.8 million. Non-GAAP operating income exceeded 30 percent of revenue, a record for the company. Non-GAAP diluted earnings per share for the second quarter were $0.72, well above expectations. The reconciling charges are set forth in the financial measures table included below.

Share repurchases during the quarter totaled approximately $75 million. The Board of Directors replaced the remaining share repurchase authorization with an increased $150 million authorization through the end of 2011. The company ended the quarter with $380 million in cash, cash equivalents and investments due to continued healthy cash flow from operations.

Business Summary

Strong performance for the quarter was led again by the company's broad-based products. Revenue was up 85 percent compared to the same period last year and represented the largest percentage of the company's revenue for the first time. Within the broad-based business, the embedded mixed-signal products had a record quarter due primarily to record MCU revenue. MCU strength resulted from strong demand for USB products and new customer ramps in applications like touchscreens and portable medical devices. The timing business also had another record quarter driven by continued demand from networking equipment makers.

The broadcast business grew by more than 20 percent compared to the second quarter of 2009. Consumer audio revenue exceeded handset revenue in the quarter due to strong ramps into new customer programs. The company also achieved key revenue and customer milestones in its video business. The company introduced a number of new products in the second quarter, including a new video demodulator as well as new clock ICs, new low power MCUs, new touch sense controllers, and new isolators and isolated gate drivers. The high level of new product activity is the outcome of the company's focus on developing a rich R&D pipeline.

"Over the last twelve months we have become a half billion dollar revenue company, delivered above model profitability resulting in some of the best metrics in the business and generated high quality earnings growth," said Necip Sayiner, President and CEO of Silicon Laboratories. "Putting this in the context of our steady diversification, market share gains and portfolio expansion, we believe the company will continue on its path of sustained top and bottom line growth."

The company guided revenues for the third quarter in the range of $136 to $141 million.

Webcast and Conference Call

A conference call discussing the results will follow this press release today at 7:30 a.m. central time. An audio webcast will be available simultaneously on Silicon Laboratories' website under Investor Relations (www.silabs.com).
